A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT & CEO

Dear friends,

I am sharing my first annual report CEO letter at an unusual time. Normally, I'd simply be pleased to report that CHCI had an outstanding year in 2019, as the information on the following pages will detail. And I am both proud and grateful to have been a part of it.

But now, our nation is undergoing such transformational change that one cannot ignore it and only look back, leaving any comment on the current time for a future report.

More than 40 years ago, four Members of the then-recently created Congressional Hispanic Caucus came together to establish CHCI, in response to the great need for more Hispanics in public service. Almost immediately, the organization began to develop leaders, first holding legislative seminars on issues important to the Hispanic community, and then launching our highly regarded fellowship and internship programs.

It has been said that we are now living through two pandemics at the same time: COVID-19, and the legacy of historical and structural racism in our society. One thing these challenges have shown is that our country needs Latino leaders more than ever. We must be at the table, a part of the conversation - in the room where it happens - so that our experiences and concerns are considered, and so that our creativity and perspectives can inform the critical decisions when they are made.

The good news is that CHCI is ready to meet this moment, and to continue providing the leaders our society needs – for Congress, corporate boardrooms, communities, and all other fields and sectors. In 2019, we:

- Engaged nearly 200 program participants to help them along their leadership journey
- Held extraordinary events that attracted more than 5,000 attendees, including 70 Members of Congress.
- Grew our alumni network to more than 4,000 leaders
- Continued to invest in our infrastructure, improving our financial position and taking another step closer to owning our biggest asset, our headquarters building outright.

As a result, we are ready to use our voices and to build and leverage our power, in order to not only persevere through the crises our nation currently faces, but to ensure a stronger and better future both for our community and all people.

I feel deeply honored and fortunate to work with CHCI's Board of Directors, Advisory Council, our accomplished alumni, and dedicated staff. We will continue to carry out our mission to create the next generation of Latino leaders, so that our community can be architects of our own future. I invite you to join us on this venture!

EDUCATE

CHCI opens pathways to success for emerging leaders by unlocking and offering congressional internships and fellowships that bolster classroom knowledge with real-world experience in a range of fields.

CHCI's resources and programs serve a pipeline of young Latinos—from high school students to early-career professionals—with a focus on educational attainment and college access (EDUCATE), professional and leadership development (EMPOWER), and networking with powerful Latino leaders (CONNECT).

For over 40 years, CHCI has educated, empowered and connected thousands of promising American Latino young people with programs and services designed to provide unparalleled leadership opportunities. With profound U.S. demographic and economic shifts expected to continue, we aim to do even more—expanding our important work and offering exceptional programs that encourage college completion and foster community involvement.

By unlocking college access and facilitating congressional internships and fellowships, CHCI bolsters classroom knowledge with real-world experience in a range of fields, providing thousands of bright young Latinos with pathways to future success.

CHCI NextOpp

Preparing Latinos for College Attainment

Through a continuing partnership with State Farm®, CHCI offers CHCINextOpp.net, a powerful online version of our National Directory of Scholarships, Internships and Fellowships for Latino Students. Nearly 19,000 Latino students, parents and educators visited the site in 2019 and used its features to search, save and share life-changing opportunities across the U.S., based on their profiles, locations and interests.

Scholar-Intern Program

Connecting Financial Support with Hands-On Experience

Supporting education is a crucial part of our mission to develop the next generation of Latino leaders. CHCI's Scholar-Intern Program provides monetary support as well as hands-on experience. From health care to human resources, CHCI's 2019 Scholar-Intern Program gave 15 individuals an opportunity to gain important skills while earning money for their education. In addition to awarding $245,000 in scholarships, we facilitated internships across the country to help advance young Latinos' professional careers and put their academics into action.

"My experience as a CHCI intern has been life changing. I was able to grow professionally and also grew to feel more confident as a Latina working in politics. I have never worked with people who looked like me or had the same background as me, so it was really nice to have people who stand in solidarity with you—I never felt alone while I was interning on Capitol Hill. I am so grateful for this program because I met people from all over the country with the common goal of advancing Latinxs in the community."

EMPOWER

Through CHCI, Latino students and young professionals are mentored by policymakers and gain leadership skills and legislative experience. Through these priceless opportunities, we foster success and encourage work for positive change—locally, regionally and nationally.

CHCI also believes that participants should give back to the community that is providing them with countless opportunities. As part of their programs, CHCI Interns and Fellows are expected to complete community service hours in the Washington, D.C. area during their program. Over the course of the program, 2019 Interns and Fellows completed nearly 1,200 hours of service to the greater D.C. community.

R2L® NextGen Sparkling Civic Engagement

In 2019, we marked the ninth year of R2L® NextGen, an invaluable youth leadership experience that brought 103 low-income Latino high school students from across the nation to Washington, D.C., for five days, with all costs covered by CHCI. During another successful year of the program, students enhanced their leadership skills, learned about public policy and legislation, met with influential Latino leaders, visited historic sites and explored their Hispanic heritage.

“The power of our government resides in the people. R2L NextGen has taught me that our generation’s voice is essential in order to create politics that reflect the needs of the nation. This experience has given me the opportunity to be a part of a family of amazing and inspiring politically-driven Latinos who are committed to creating change in their communities.”

Congressional Internship Program Gaining Legislative Experience

Through CHCI’s summer and semester internships, talented Latino undergraduates gain firsthand experience in public policy by working in congressional offices, benefit from weekly leadership development sessions, engage in timely discussions on issues affecting the Hispanic community and learn the importance of engaged citizenship through community service projects. In 2019, CHCI hosted 73 interns.

Public Policy Fellowship Program Empowering Future Policymakers

In keeping with our founders' vision, CHCI's 2019 Public Policy Fellowship program brought 10 talented young Latino professionals to Washington, D.C., for our prestigious, nine-month, Public Policy Fellowship. This latest cohort excelled in their placements and gained important insights into the national public policy arena.

"Being able to lift the voices of my community back home has always been the goal throughout this fellowship. Being nicknamed "Arkansas" early on by my cohort and co-workers kept me grounded throughout the nine months by reminding me that I was representing my state, and specifically the Latinxs that are too often discounted from national attention because of their geographic location in the U.S. I'm thankful that an organization like CHCI can provide these organic communities and safe spaces. There will never be enough of us here. While being the first is a great milestone, it won't matter if I'm the last. I'm hopeful that in the future the streets of D.C. and the halls of Congress will look more like my CHCI cohort, and I look forward to continue putting in the work to make sure that happens."

SUPPORT

WHY GIVE TO CHCI?

Profound demographic shifts in the American landscape are transforming our nation's workforce and economy. Already, 1 in 4 Americans under 18 are Latino, nearly 100,000 Latinos turn 18 every month, and 74 percent of new entrants to the workforce between 2010 and 2020 are projected to be Latino (per the U.S. Census Bureau).

Given this demographic reality, the strength of the United States is closely tied to the success of the Latino community. As the future driver of economic growth and the foundation of the modern American workforce, Latino young people must be educated and fully prepared to assume leadership roles across sectors. Investment in the Latino community today through leadership and skills development is critical to the future health of our society, democracy and economy. Investing in the Latino community is also smart for business and good for society.

WAYS TO GIVE TO CHCI

Gifts of all sizes help us educate, empower and connect young Latinos. You can support CHCI by:

- Sponsoring an event and/or a young leader's participation in a program.
- Donating in-kind products or services.
- Creating a long-lasting endowment.
- Recognizing a loved one through Gifts in Honor or Gifts in Memoriam.
- Remembering CHCI in your estate plan as a contingent beneficiary.

You can make an online gift today at chci.org/donate or contact our giving team at externalaffairs@chci.org.

CHCI is tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, Federal ID #52-1114225. CHCI does not attempt to influence legislation and does not employ any registered lobbyists. All grants and contributions to CHCI are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by federal law.
